

Follow us on

Monday, Feb. 4, 2013 | 12:53 a.m.

Subscribe | Customer care

Sign In | Register

Hi, (not you?) | Member Center | Sign Out

Sign In | Register

The Palm Beach Post

Breaking news starts here

Site Web

Web Search by YAHOO!

Posted: 7:03 p.m. Friday, Feb. 1, 2013

Five hospitalized after Florida's Turnpike wreck north of Boynton Beach Boulevard

By Toni-Ann Miller

BOYNTON BEACH — A two-vehicle accident on Florida's Turnpike has left five people hospitalized with unknown injuries this evening, according to a county fire rescue spokesman.

Capt. Albert Borroto said the accident, which happened 2 miles north of the Boynton Beach Boulevard exit, left one vehicle on its side. Crews were called to the scene just after 5:30 p.m.

The five people were taken to Bethesda Hospital West, Borroto said.

No additional information was immediately available.

More News

We Recommend

- Speed a factor in horrific crash on Okeechobee that killed 25-year-old West Palm man, police say (PalmBeachPost.com)
- Boy, 13, flown to hospital after being struck by car in suburban Boynton Beach (PalmBeachPost.com)
- Lake Worth-area woman accused of abandoning 3-week-old at home while she went out drinking (PalmBeachPost.com)
- Child struck by vehicle at South Florida Fairgrounds (PalmBeachPost.com)

From Around the Web

- 5 Worst Mistakes Women Make in Bed (MyDailyMoment)
- Vitamin D Affects Genes for Cancer, Autoimmune Diseases (HealthCentral.com)
- Where Does The Car Dealer Make Money (Edmunds)
- Tiger Woods vs. Rory McIlroy, real estate edition (Golf.com)
- Wells Fargo CEO: Why Americans are saving so much (Fortune Management)
- 5 Worst-Selling Cars Of All Time (Investopedia)

- Scooter rider hit by vehicle near 10th Ave. and Military Trail in suburban Lake Worth (PalmBeachPost.com)
- Lake Worth man, 19, accused of having sex with two girls, both under 10 (PalmBeachPost.com)

[?]

Comments

If you would like to post a comment please Sign in or Register
