A man was hospitalized in critical condition following a collision between an SUV and a truck on Monday, Coral Springs Police said.

The crash happened around 3:45 p.m. near the 1300 block of Coral Ridge Drive, Sgt. Brad McKeone said.

One vehicle appeared to turn into the path of the other, he said, although the investigation was ongoing.

Firefighters took the SUV's driver to Broward Health North Medical Center in critical condition, Fire Rescue spokesman Mike Moser said. The other driver was uninjured.

Monday afternoon rush hour traffic was delayed through the area, McKeone said.

A Broward Sheriff's deputy also was uninjured when a passing car hit the deputy's patrol car that had just arrived at the crash scene, according to Coral Springs Police Sgt. Carla Mertes.
