Man, 66, dies after crash last week on I-95 near Congress Avenue

By Alexandra Seltzer

Palm Beach Post Staff Writer

A 66-year-old man died Saturday after he was involved in a car accident on Interstate 95 earlier in the week.

Jean G. Fanfan, of Delray Beach, died Saturday at Delray Medical Center, where he had been since the May 13 wreck.

Fanfan, according to Florida Highway Patrol, was driving a 1996 Toyota Camry north on I-95 in the outside center lane near Congress Avenue around 1:30 p.m. Fanfan, who was not wearing his seat belt, drifted to the right and drove onto the paved shoulder, according to an FHP report.

Fanfan continued driving onto the grass shoulder where his car overturned. He was taken to the Delray Beach hospital where he was pronounced dead Saturday.

FHP investigators said they have not yet determined if Fanfan was under the influence of alcohol or drugs at the time of the wreck.
