Two sent to area hospitals after three-vehicle crash in suburban West Palm Beach

By Julius Whigham II

Palm Beach Post Staff Writer

Two people were taken to area hospitals with minor injuries tonight after a three-vehicle crash in suburban West Palm Beach, Palm Beach County Fire Rescue said.

Paramedics responded shortly before 10 p.m. to the crash scene at Okeechobee Boulevard and Haverhill Road. One of the vehicles was on fire, said Capt. Albert Borroto, Fire Rescue spokesman.

A Palm Beach County sheriff's deputy used his fire extinguisher to put the fire out. The vehicles sustained moderate damage, Borroto said.

One person was taken to Wellington Regional Medical Center. The other was taken to Palms West Hospital in Loxahatchee. Both went by ambulance.
