The child was run over by a 16-year-old family member on Avalone Drive at about 3:30 p.m. It is being treated as an accident.

"She had run out from the side of the house. As he was backing up she had gotten behind the vehicle and ran over her," Sgt. Kristen Neutzling said.

Family members were preparing to celebrate the 2-year-old girl's birthday. Her party was supposed to be this weekend.

The teen was moving the truck to clean the driveway.

"He was blowing the grass off the driveway, so he was moving the truck out the way to finish cleaning off the grass," Neutzling said.

The teen did not have a license, according to FHP. The teen may not be charged
