Five people hospitalized after car crash on Dixie Highway in Lake Worth

By Julius Whigham II

Palm Beach Post Staff Writer

Five people were taken to area hospitals after being injured this evening in a Lake Worth crash involving two cars, a Palm Beach County Fire Rescue spokesman said.

The crash occurred at about 3:30 p.m. at the intersection of Wellesley Drive and South Dixie Highway.

Paramedics arriving at the scene found one car and were told that the other car left the scene, said Capt. Albert Borroto, spokesman for Fire Rescue.

Two people were taken to Bethesda East Hospital in Boynton Beach, one was taken to JFK Medical Center in Atlantis and two others were taken to St. Mary's Medical Center in West Palm Beach.

An update on their conditions was not immediately available.

Julius:

That would be North Dixie Highway.
