A 51-year-old Tarpon Springs woman was killed in a rollover crash on Alligator Alley on Thursday, according to the Florida Highway Patrol.

Nancy Gilberti was eastbound on Interstate 75 around 3 p.m. when she lost control of the 2004 Chevrolet Trailblazer she was driving. It swerved off the highway at Mile Marker 38 and rolled over in the grass on the south shoulder, the FHP said.

She died at the scene.

Broward Sheriff Fire Rescue's Regional Everglades Unit worked to free her body from the wreckage. A sheriff's helicopter used an infrared camera to look for any others who might have been involved in the fatal crash, spokesman Mike Jachles said.

"We were continuing the search for any possible victims that could have been ejected," he said. "We found no one else."

Eastbound traffic was slowed through the crash area but no lanes were closed for any length of time, the FHP said.
